RENOVATIONS AT OCPM

OHIO COLLEGE OF PODIATRIC MEDICINE
CLEVELAND FOOT CLINIC
ADMINISTRATION,

FACULTY AND STAFF
TO THE MEMBERS OF THE
OCPM GRADUATION CLASS
OF 1996

I am pleased to write this letter of congratulations to the graduating class of 1996. You are the product of the best educational program in our history and have been the recipient of some of the newer educational technologies available today.

You have been trained to be lifelong learners and have been given the tools necessary to compete in today's changing medical world. You are the future of Podiatric Medicine that will guide our profession through the beginnings of the next millennia. You will be a part of a technological breakthrough in information that will be unprecedented in contemporary history. Your future is exciting and indeed challenging.

I am confident that you will ensure that the foot health care of our citizens will be at the highest level available.

On behalf of the Administration, Faculty and Staff we congratulate you all and we are proud of your accomplishments.

We would like to welcome the newest faculty member to the Surgery Dept. Chris Herbert, DPM.
Enjoying a nice day.

Cracking up in Ortho.

Never a boring moment with Spencer. This is his everyday look. HA!

"Hey, this is pretty neat."

Dr. Turlik is looking for his "partner in crime."

Well, here they are. Two peas in a pod.

Dr. Quade enjoys quiet time in the Library.

An intense conversation.

DAY OFF ENJOYED AT CEDAR POINT

Paul, Animesh, Dave, Kisha, Tara, Lisa-Maria, & Joanne.

A big splash!!

Dave and Animesh get soaked.

MORE MEMORIES

Felicia participating in a surgery work-shop.

Rob evaluating radiographs.

Brian Giesy working in surgery.

Joel and Freddy getting ready for the day.

Hi Hector!
Kirk visiting Israel.

Ray and Johnny enjoy the seminar.

Rudy, don’t blow it up.

Asha and Jennifer enjoy a quick lunch.

Such nice guys. (Eric and Todd)

Hi Joanne, how is the review of instruments going?

What is going on here? (Mark and Bill)

These three seem excited. (Mark, Zahid, and Joel)
OCPM
UNDERCLASSMEN
It has become tradition for the school to have a ceremony of "Rights of Passage." This ceremony is to celebrate the advancement from second year to third year, where the Junior class will enter through the doors of the clinic and interact with patients on a professional level.
Mai got a rabbit for her birthday.

Valerie and Jeff are happy to be in the clinic.

One thing that is always enjoyed — FOOD.

“Who smells?”

What is so exciting, Gary?

“Where did everyone go?”

Patty, are you helping or hiding?
Such a serious game.

"We forgot how to play."

"This conversation is going nowhere."

"I deem you my knight."

"He's irresistible."

How sweet.

"He figured it out; I'm mighty mouse."

"Now we can be somebody."
"I'm getting some food."

"Maybe she'll stop talking in a minute."

"We came for the appearance that's all."

"Just buy a Club One Thousand book already!"

"Can you see me?"

"Cheese."

"No, we're not the three stooges."

"Clinic work makes for a long day."

"Now what?"

"I'm so full of it!"

"Hey, we're over here in the corner."
"Turn up the heat."

"He is not with us."

"He is trying to say he wrote it."

"MMMMmmmmm good."

"We're playing musical chairs."

"Do you like my hair?"

"Can this be over already."

"Happy to be here."

"Do you see that pink elephant?"

"I've got to finish this."
They look sweet ... ... but at night they become animals!

Coochy, Coochy, Coo!

"Tae, that Dr. Pepper ain't workin' for ya, bud."

"Are you listening to me?"

Can you say, LAZY?! Giving a hand for the clothing drive

Chris Jones or Pat Riley?
Dennis gets a lift after he broke his fibula at the OPMSA picnic.

Billy is attended to after he sprained his ankle at the class picnic.

Shannon and Dora take a break after a long day.

Keeping up with all the second year classes is tough!

These three look a little confused.

Jeremy sets up the volleyball

These four guys look like trouble.

Carmelita takes a second for a picture, while Caroly keeps on typing.
"Don't worry this won't hurt a bit."

John and Annie find time to study between classes.

"What are you girls looking for in there?"

Study buddies — Jamie and Andy!

"Why are these two so smiley?"

The class picnic was a blast for Brian and his family.

What a class!
In case you were wondering, that's Wendy Morrison with Jeff.

"Dave, are you wearing your chick shirt?"

"Kristine, where's your other hand?"

"Things could be worse, Sean."

Great friends — Jody and Holly

The walk from class ...

... and across Carnegie is a daily routine.

"We're bigger; I think we can take them."

"Next time, let's get some fun in the box!"
"Ya know, it just doesn't get any better than this!"

"I'll have what she is having!"

Chez, Doctor's Inn

"Shouldn't you girls be in class?"
And they get paid for that!

"Mike, this is the wrong school for that."

Foosball — The frustration breaker

There is nothing humerus about gross anatomy!

I believe this is illegal in most states.

These 3 just can’t get enough formaldehyde.
These guys are having a pow wow after an Indians victory.

He's happy to be a 1st year.

Jean looks anxious before class begins.

Doug, Mike, and Donald enjoy fresh Cleveland air between classes.

Anyway to relieve stress is a good way.

Good friends — Good times.

Lloyd instructs these guys about the glycolytic pathway.

Such a pleasant group.

Chassity makes sure she is keeping up with her studies.
These 1st years are a wild bunch

"They’re behind me, aren’t they?"

You can’t study that way.

"Were we supposed to dress up?"

Pool sharks — Rondrick and Chris

Craig and Rich share a drink

"Pretend we’re studying — maybe she’ll go away!"

"Whad’ya think about the waitress and the chick with the bone?"
STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS
The American Podiatric Medical Students' Association is composed of all podiatric medical students across the United States. The APMSA represents student concerns to the APMA and various bodies under its jurisdiction. The Ohio delegation represents OCPM at all APMSA national meetings. At the local level APMSA encourages student involvement, political activism, and community awareness programs. (T.M.)

OPMSA

The Ohio Podiatric Medical Student Association is dedicated to the representation of podiatric medical students at the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine. In conjunction with the Ohio Podiatric Medical Association, O.P.M.S.A. works to address issues facing today's podiatric medical student. In addition to representation on the local level in all areas encompassing the educational environment, O.P.M.S.A. serves students on the state level as well. O.P.M.S.A. also strives to define the network in which student organizations operate. (K.S.)

CONGRATULATIONS to the
Class of 1996!!
The American Association for Women Podiatrists is composed of professionals and preprofessionals who are engaged in the practice or research of Podiatric Medicine and Foot Surgery. The AAWP provides a framework within podiatry where the organization can help network with each other and with other professionals organizations. They also have a scholarship for students based on financial need and academic excellence. The AAWP serves as a forum for communication, education and an organization to share common interests in podiatry.

Dr. Calise — 1995-96 sponsor

"Are you ladies enjoying the meeting?"

Some of the officers take a break after a hectic meeting.

I bet you guys wonder what does on at AAWP meetings.
Officers: President — Peyman Elison, Vice-President — Troy Espiritu, Secretary — Jeff Szczepanski, Treasurer — Viedra Elison

Scot and Windy picked up casting quickly.

"Don't worry Brad it's only a pig's foot.”

Dr. Kushner instructs on the casting procedure.

"Something funny guys?”

"You’re the man, Dr. Spencer.”

This first year table is getting some much needed help.

The final product!

Dr. Seisel is always very helpful.

ACFAS

The American College of Foot and Ankle Surgeons is an organization for students to gain some knowledge about the practice of surgery procedures. Some of the activities include a casting workshop and a suturing workshop. Dr. Kushner, Dr. Seisel, Dr. Spencer, and Dr. Herbert have been special guest lectures for the club.
The sports medicine club sponsors lectures on sports medicine, participates in local athletic events and promotes good athletic training. This year they held various meetings with hands-on experience. They look forward to volunteering their services at a few of the summer marathons.

It doesn't look good when you need two TA's.

Nancy is happy because she found STJ neutral.

Chris and Rodney are not sure about this Low-dye stuff.

Dr. Lichniak helps out

Shaky hands?

"Why me? Why now?"

"Ouch! What are you doing?"
PI DELTA

The purpose of Pi Delta is to promote high scholarship in podiatry and the podiatric sciences in order to progressively advance the profession. Membership in this organization can only be attained by high standards of intellectual and scholarly activity. Election into the Pi Delta Honor Society symbolizes and epitomizes high scholastic achievement.

COMPUTER CLUB

DERMATOLOGY CLUB

The American Society of Podiatric Dermatology or the "derm club" was founded at O.C.P.M. to further the education of dermatology among the students. In its goals are a commitment to expand the general knowledge base, providing the support to conduct research, and allowing students to develop their clinical skills. Through lectures, workshops, and research presentations members further their abilities while developing a spirit of fellowship with other professionals. The organization's greatest aspiration is that skills learned through ASPD sponsorship will go on to benefit the community and the profession. (J.F.)

Everyone attending enjoyed the KTE Dinner.

Sharing good advice.

No business talk here.

Taking left-overs home.

These three never sat down.

Blair had a good time.

What a cute couple!

Another cute couple!

Chip, the wonder boy.
Enjoying the company and the dinner.

Even this group behaved.

Another two pleasant people enjoying the dinner.

KTE Radiology conference snacks.

People froze, but still had fun at flag football.

"This is crazy and cold, but FUN!"

What a crew!

There was a lot of eating dirt going on at HOT SHOTS volleyball.

This was actually a good play.

Dr. Siesel and Suhad monitored the competitions from the side lines. They might have even played a few.

More football buffs.

This is actually a "PRO" in disguise.

C-YA LATER!!!
John and Jeremy are dressed to a tee.

Thanks guys, for the support.

Tom and Paul get ready to tee off.

Blair watches on as Rick takes another swing.

“Two sportin’ Spencers.”

“Both hands on the club Brad.”

“Finished so soon?”

“Hey Andrew and Mark, are you two attached at the hip?”

Doug and Brent try to blend in.

“Buying new equipment can’t help at this point Chris and Mark.”

“Tim, shouldn’t you keep your eye on the ball?”
OPMSA HALLOWEEN PARTY

Tyler, Pat, & Vern — Saturday Night Fever.

A cow, Big Boy, & a cave women. You figure it out.

EDITOR'S LETTER

A yearbook is something that may not seem as important to a student at the time of publication, unless you’re one of the people putting it together, but years down the road it is a book that is nice to look back on. I hope that this book will hold at least one pleasant memory for you.

Finishing this yearbook really made reality sink in, this is my class’s final time here at OCPM. With this being a busy year, it definitely was trying at times to get everything taken care of, but there were many people willing to contribute to helping. Contributions ranged from: picture taking, picture donating, helping with the lay-out, and odd jobs here and there. It was a great pleasure to include some of those helpful people on the OCCOPODIAN page. I’m hoping since the involvement with the yearbook included someone from every class there will continue to be participation in the publication and increase awareness, as well as quantity and quality of the OCCOPODIAN. I would like to personally thank all of you!!

A special thanks to Shelly Muchnicki and Amy Marie Latiak for letting people drop things off for us with them and contacting us when necessary, Matt Bosso for taking pictures for as even though it added to his work load, and all of the faculty and staff for putting up with the cameras flashing every time they turned around. Although I was hoping for the entire class to participate, I was pleased with the turn out of pictures of the senior class. I would like to thank each one of you for your contribution. Also, a very special thanks to the seniors’ families that participated in the “Congratulations” pages.

Our class (Class of 1996) has really been through some times, good and bad. You are all to be congratulated and should feel proud of your accomplishment. You should know that your families are very proud and wishing the best for you. Hold your head high and have confidence in the contributions that you are about to bestow on the Podiatry profession. Know that you have done the time with studying and preparing for your life as a Podiatrist. I believe that the Class of 1996 can really have a positive impact on our profession and I wish each and every one of you the best that life has to offer. Know that with faith, dedication, and persistence there will be success.

Enjoy your yearbook!

Lisa Maria Griffith
Heads of many of the 186 member nations gather in New York to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the United Nations in October.

In a powerful address to the U.N.’s Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing, China, attended by 30,000 women from 180 countries, U.S. First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton declares, “Women’s rights are human rights,” to a desk-thumping, applauding audience.

French transportation workers strike against their government throughout the month of December, shutting down the airlines and the metro system, after France increases the retirement age from 50 to 55 and lengthens the work week from 37 to 39 hours in efforts to cut spending.

Pope John Paul II visits New Jersey, New York and Maryland, and addresses the United Nations. He speaks out on social, economic, political and moral themes.

Shock waves hit the Middle East when Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin is shot and killed while leaving a peace rally in Tel Aviv November 4. His murderer, Jewish extremist Yigal Amir, fanatically opposes peace negotiations with the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Marxist Cuban President Fidel Castro abandons his Havana cigar and military fatigues for a suit and tie on a diplomatic visit to New York in October, where he tries to convince the U.S. to lift its 33-year-old trade embargo on still-communist Cuba.

Madman Shoko Asahara, leader of the Japanese apocalyptic religious cult, Aum Shinrikyo, is arrested on May 16 and charged with the Tokyo subway nerve-gas attack that left 12 people dead and injured 5,500 more in March.

In late May, a doctor performs emergency surgery aboard British Airways flight 32 using a coat hanger, a knife and fork, and a scissors sterilized in brandy to save a woman whose life is threatened by a collapsed lung.

Bougainvillean protesters escalate into riots after France detonates a nuclear test device 750 miles from the South Pacific island. France’s September resumption of tests after a three-year moratorium brings global condemnation.

In a Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing, China, attended by 30,000 women from 180 countries, U.S. First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton declares, “Women’s rights are human rights,” to a desk-thumping, applauding audience.

An earthquake kills 51 people on the resort-studded Pacific coast of Mexico. The quake measures 7.5 on the Richter scale and is felt 330 miles away in Mexico City.

The first U.S. president to visit Northern Ireland, President Clinton receives a warm Christmas welcome for his show of support for peace between Irish Protestants and Catholics.

Hurricane Marilyn inflicts millions of dollars of damage in the Virgin Islands in September. Winds up to 127 miles per hour severely damage half the homes on St. Thomas.

Quebec, Canada's largely French-speaking province, defeats an October referendum on Quebec independence by a margin of less than one percent.

In July, without public explanations, Burma's military rulers free the country's most famous political prisoner, Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, leader of the pro-democracy movement and Nobel peace laureate, after six years of house arrest.

Russian figure skater Sergei Grinkov, 28, collapses and dies from a heart attack during practice with his wife-partner Ekaterina Gordeeva on November 20. The pair won two Olympic gold medals and four world pairs titles.

Hope blooms for peace in Bosnia when Bosnia's President Haradinaj (left) shakes hands with Serbia's President Milosevic on the opening day of the November cease-fire talks in Dayton, Ohio. Croatia's President Tudjman looks on. The ensuing Paris peace agreement of December sends 60,000 NATO peacekeeping troops to the war-torn country.

Great Britain's Princess Diana shocks Buckingham Palace with a tell-all BBC interview. Defying royal protocol, she discusses her marriage to unfaithful husband, Prince Charles, her struggle with depression and bulimia, and an extramarital affair. The majority of English people express their support and sympathy.

A San Francisco sewer line bursts under pressure from battering rainstorms, creating a monster sinkhole that swallows a $2-million house in the Sea Cliff district. One-hundred-mile-per-hour winds knock out power to tens of thousands of homes and nearly blow a truck off the Bay Bridge.

The nation comes to a standstill on October 3 as more than 150 million people watch live TV coverage of the outcome of the nine-month-long trial of the century. After less than four hours of deliberation, the jury finds former football star O.J. Simpson not guilty of the murders of his ex-wife Nicole and her friend Ronald Goldman.

Three days of drenching rains in the Pacific Northwest swell rivers to overflowing, causing severe flooding in Washington in December. In the town of Carnation, a pastor conveys a woman to dry land with a wheelbarrow.

Illinois suffers a record heat wave in July, with temperatures as high as 104°. The heat takes the lives of 457 people statewide. At Wrigley Stadium, Jaime Navarro helps faithful Chicago Cubs fans stay cool.

After a year of fame as a conservative revolutionary, Speaker of the House Newt Gingrich slumps in popularity, tainted by the government shutdown, his stalled Contract With America, and investigations into his political action committee and his financial affairs.

The federal government repeals the national 55-mile-per-hour highway speed limit, enacted in 1974 during the oil embargo. The legislation allows states to set their own limits. On Montana highways, speed limits are eliminated completely.

Air Force Captain Scott O'Grady (right) is rescued from pursuing Bosnian Serb forces by U.S. Marines on June 8, six days after his plane is shot down over Bosnia. O'Grady survived on insects, plants, and rainwater.

Two-thousand volunteer firefighters battle a raging wildfire in eastern Long Island, New York, for three days in August. The fire, following a 21-day drought, consumes 5,500 acres of pine barrens and damages a dozen homes. There are no injuries or fatalities.
As more Americans invest, Wall Street enjoys a bull market. In November, the Dow-Jones Industrial Average hits 5000, a milestone indicating healthy corporate profits and low interest rates.

On April 30, the adoptive parents of four-year-old "Baby Richard" comply with an Illinois court order to turn the child over to his biological parents.

The government shuts down for six days in November after the President and Congress fail to agree on how to balance the federal budget. The shutdown affects non-essential federal services, including the National Park Service. A longer shutdown follows in December.

The State of South Carolina sentences Susan Smith to life in prison for the drowning murder of her two young sons in 1994.

An anonymous donor sends St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital in Memphis $1 million in the form of a winning ticket from McDonald's November "Monopoly" sweepstakes game.

In the wake of a growing number of random attacks from assailants with knives and guns, White House security is forced to close Pennsylvania Avenue to traffic.

After allegedly ignoring federal pollution regulations for years, General Motors agrees under threat of an $11-million fine to recall 500,000 Cadillacs at a cost of $45 million.

American women celebrate the 75th anniversary of the 19th amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which granted women the right to vote. Women's suffrage leader Susan B. Anthony (1820-1906) first organized the fight for suffrage in 1848.

A record snowfall paralyzes the East Coast in January 1996, stranding travelers and killing 100 people. Seven states, from Virginia to Massachusetts, declare emergencies. Philadelphia gets 30.7 inches of snow.

The image of firefighter Chris Fields holding a year-old Saylee Almon, who later dies, comes to symbolize the horror of the April 19 bombing of the Oklahoma City Federal Building that killed 160 adults and 19 children.

Despite Americans' doubts and fears, U.S. troops head for Bosnia in December. The 20,000 U.S. forces, serving under NATO command beside 40,000 European allies, face the task of keeping peace among the country's warring Serbs, Croats and Muslims.

The Washington Post publishes a manifesto written by the unidentified killer known as "The Unabomber," at large since 1978 and wanted for 16 mail bombs that have killed 3 and injured 23. FBI agents scrutinize the article for clues to the bomber's identity.

A Chicago commuter train slams into the back end of a loaded school bus. The accident, allegedly caused by a poorly timed stoplight placed too near the tracks, kills 7 students and injures 28 on October 25.
