You say you don't want my letters,
But I mail them anyway
Some of them come back to me
Others you keep which is fine
Actually, I'd prefer it if you kept them all, but you don't
Or you won't
So I will take notice of the letters you enjoy
I won't write the other ones any more
They must be a boring read for you
My new letters profess my undying love for you
Even though you are an unfaithful, lying bitch
You never answer me when I confront you about your infidelity
I still love you even though you have become a whore
I am now begging you to answer me
If you don't respond soon I will have to come see you
You are going to hurt like I hurt when I see you
I will make you read all of your mail you filthy bitch
Today I got a letter from you
I tore open the pretty manila envelope
And there was my name in big bold letters
On the restraining order
