

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES

Rachel Kozy is a graphic designer focused on visual branding, UI/UX and typography. She plans to graduate in May 2016 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Visual Communication Design. She currently works as a designer at IdeaBase and is also the president of her collegiate chapter of AIGA. In the past she has worked with clients such as MTV, Weapons of Mass Creation and Kent State University.

Marissa Kopco is a senior Visual Communication Design student pursuing a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with an Art History minor. She currently works as a designer at Signum Design and interned with Each + Every over the summer in Kent, Ohio. She is passionate about solving problems and thinking creatively and graduates in May 2016.

Martha Arbogast is a graphic designer studying Visual Communication Design at Kent State University. She spent this past summer in Washington D.C. interning at the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum as an exhibits design intern, and currently works as a designer at IdeaBase. She plans to graduate in May 2016 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts.

Derek Lawrence is a senior Visual Communication Design student at Kent State University. He is currently a graphic designer for Kent State University Libraries and interned with a design firm in Cleveland this past summer. He plans to graduate in May 2017.