WINE LIST

Since each vintage develops its own character and quality, these qualities are highlighted for you below. The Lot numbers appear on the back of the label and can be seen through the bottle. (The * indicates bottlings since June 1978.)

JOHANNISBERG RIESLING

1975 This Riesling is light to medium bodied and well balanced. The Lots are almost dry, Kabinett style and have not aged long in the barrel. Fully mature they are now ready.
   Lot 519  Clone 90, unfiltered  $5.98  $64.58
   520  Light Oak
   *532  Light Oak

1976 Here the natural residual sugar (about 1%) adds to the fruitiness and varietal character and still is not too sweet for use as a table wine. Also is fresh and elegant by itself.
   Lot 602  No oak, slight spritz  $6.98  $75.38
   *624  Very light oak

CHARDONNAY

1974 This vintage is light bodied, crisp and clean with a distinctive character of its own. Although four years old, it is still fresh and pleasing.
   Lot 401  French oak  $5.98  $64.58
   403-405  American oak

1975 Almost as big as 1973, it is smooth and full bodied. The new French oak adds subtle grace to the complexities as this vintage grows.
   Lot 523-*533  American oak  $6.49  $70.09
   *531  French oak

1976 This Chardonnay is perfectly clean with excellent varietal character and balance. We feel a modest oak touch enhances the final true natural chardonnay flavor. This flavor develops slowly, and, we feel, is worth waiting for.
   Lot *621  American oak  $5.98  $64.58
   *623-625  European and American oak
MARKKO RED

1975  This last Lot (53) is a blend of early and late hybrids with 10% Cabernet. It is very clean and pleasant with a personality of its own.

1976  This was the first big harvest of Cabernet Sauvignon grapes. We have blended in 20% Chambourcin to facilitate earlier maturity, since Cabernet by itself may take ten or more years to reach its peak. It will profit greatly from more age.

Lot   61    Chambourcin 100% light bodied
       62    Early bottling blend, light oak
       *63    Full oak, mostly French
